John Hagelin to Launch New U.S. Peace Government

“Complementary” government to include 400 of the nation’s top medical doctors, business leaders, and university professors

$100 million has been raised for U.S. Peace Government peace projects

NEWS CONFERENCE

Wednesday, July 2, 10 AM
Hay-Adams Hotel, Washington, D.C.

Dr. John Hagelin, renowned quantum physicist and Natural Law Party presidential candidate in 2000, will launch a new “U.S. Peace Government” in Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, July 2, 10 a.m., at the Hay-Adams Hotel.

Dr. Hagelin will be joined at the news conference by Cabinet-level representatives of this second, “complementary” government, which will include 400 of America’s top medical doctors, business leaders, policy makers, and university professors.

Dr. Hagelin has helped to raise over $100 million for U.S. Peace Government peace projects, including funds to establish a flagship campus for a new University of Peace. Funds are also being used to build, in the United States, 100 Peace Palaces in America’s largest 100 cities. Already, three $4 million Peace Palaces have opened in Bethesda, Maryland; Lexington, Kentucky; and Fairfield, Iowa.

Dr. Hagelin said that the U.S. Peace Government will not usurp the responsibilities of the existing government, which is primarily concerned with crisis management. Instead, the second government will promote scientifically proven programs to effectively prevent problems—in health care, education, defense, economy, energy, agriculture, and the environment.

“The U.S. Peace Government is more than just a gigantic policy think-tank, because it will directly implement proven programs for the prevention of problems and the promotion of peace in cities across America,” Dr. Hagelin said. “Moreover, the U.S. Peace Government will actually govern the country in the crucial area of national consciousness, by addressing and alleviating the acute social stress that fuels violence and conflict. By bringing the life of the people more into accord with Natural Law, the U.S. Peace Government will prevent crime, improve health, and thus elevate the destiny of the nation.”
